Notes

Dear Parents,

We have been working hard at school on writing our names and learning about our classmates names, particularly the first letter that each child’s name begins with. As you are talking with your child about the letters they know, see if they can tell you what letter their friend’s name begins with. When a child is able to not only name a letter but also ascribe meaning to it (P is Mr. Paul’s letter!!) then they are well on their way to learning that letter and the sound that it makes.

I want to thank you again for sharing your capable, competent children with us. What a joy it is to see your child’s precious smiles as they join us at school every day.

Thanks,
Sherrie

Curriculum Corner

This week we will continue learning about shapes and grocery stores in our ELLC curriculum. Our letter phoneme is Pp. In math we are learning about the properties of shapes.
